

Credentials of the Law Offices of Julia Ann Brungess

When deciding on the right divorce attorney to help you navigate a challenging life transition, it's important to know you are getting a team member who wants to be a part of the solution and not part of the problem. At the Law Offices of Julia Ann Brungess, we understand that divorce and separation are difficult for families and realize decisions made now, through litigation or alternative dispute resolution, will have an impact on you and your family members' lives for years to come. Both of our Certified Family Law Specialists, Julia Ann Brungess and Teri Ann Kezirian, have the experience and credentials to see you and your family through divorce in a way that honors communication, respect, and maintains healthy family dynamics.

Julia Ann Brungess has been practicing family law in the Fresno area for 31 years, including litigating difficult family law issues. She has been a Certified Family Law Specialist since 1993 and is the past chair of the Fresno County Bar Association Family Law Section. She is the immediate-past president of the local collaborative practice group, CVCLA and served on the the board of the statewide collaborative organization, Collaborative Practice California. Her extensive experience in the courtroom is what led her to search for a more family-focused approach to resolution in disputes. Her commitment to collaborative methods is a direct result of what she has witnessed and seen work throughout her career.

Teri Ann Kezirian has been practicing family law in the Fresno area for seven years. She represents adults and children involved in court proceedings, pursuing favorable outcomes while protecting her clients' interests. She graduated cum laude from the University of California San Diego with a degree in political science and gender studies. She then attended UC Davis School of Law. Teri Ann has worked with Julia Ann Brungess as a litigator since December 2007. She is approved to represent children and teenagers through the Fresno County Superior Court. She served as chair of the Fresno County Bar Association Family Law Section for the 2012/2013 term. Teri Ann Kezirian became a Certified Family Law Specialist, certified by the State Bar of California

Board of Legal Specialization on July 1, 2014.

Both Julia and Teri Ann serve and represent clients in family and juvenile dependency courts in Fresno, Madera, Tulare, Kings, and Mariposa Counties. They provide their clients with thoughtful and personalized representation through these often emotionally difficult proceedings.
